

DEC 6 1965

Morenoff on Research Staff

Morenoff

Jerome Morenoff has been appointed a senior associate in the Washington office of Planning Research Corp. He will work in the firm's Intelligence Systems Department. Formerly with the Central Intelligence Agency, Morenoff was an advisor to that body's deputy director for science and technology. He has two law degrees from George Washington University, and three academic degrees from Columbia University.